25 November 2016

Dear Kirsty,

Thank you for your email of 1 November enclosing Llanfrynach Community Council's letter to me regarding road safety works in Llanhamlach.

Unfortunately my office cannot find a record of receiving the letter directly from the Community Council, so please do pass my comments on to them.

The statutory consultation and design for the 50mph speed limit in Llanhamlach are progressing and the draft order is expected to be published this financial year which, subject to any responses, will be made by mid 2017. The 50mph speed limits at Nant Ddu and Llanspyddid are expected to be in place during the next financial year.

The feasibility study for footway provision in Llanhamlach is progressing and will be completed this financial year.

A study into the signing provision at Millbrook Farm central reserve crossing point is underway and recommendations will be provided by the end of this financial year.

*Yours ever,
Ken*
