New Councillors join Community Council

County Councillor for Cantref,
Barbara Smith

Llanfrynach Community Council has recently appointed two new Councillors – one for the Cantref Ward and one for Groesffordd. Barbara Smith, who has joined as councillor for Cantref, is a retired civil servant. She moved to Cantref in 2004 with her husband and has spent a large amount of time overseas. She was appointed as councillor in March this year. Her hobbies include looking after her grandchildren, quilting, gardening and travelling. Steve Prothero was appointed as councillor for the Groesffordd Ward and has lived in the village

County Councillor for Groesffordd,
Steve Prothero

ever since he was four years old. He is married to Gaynor and they have three children, Katherine, Daniel and Sion. Steve runs his own painting and decorating business with his two sons. He loves sport, especially football and supports Tottenham. He enjoys gardening and grows veg, tomatoes and chillies in his green house. He also enjoys walking the fields with his two dogs Dino and Sox.
